Introduction

Regulatory background

This is the Pension Administration Strategy of Lambeth Pension Fund (“the Fund”), administered by Lambeth Council (“the administering authority”).

This Statement has been produced in accordance with regulation 59 of the Local Government Pension Scheme Regulations 2013 (“the Regulations”). The Regulations provide that the administering authority may prepare, maintain and publish a written Statement setting out their policy concerning administration matters, and that the administering authority and the scheme employers participating in the Fund must then have regard to that strategy when carrying out their respective functions.

The Regulations also require that the administering authority must consult with its participating employers (and any other persons it considers appropriate) in preparing or reviewing this Strategy

In addition, regulation 70 of the Regulations allows an administering authority to recover additional costs incurred by the administering authority from a participating employer where, in its opinion, those costs are directly related to the poor performance of that employer. Where this situation arises, the administering authority is required to give written notice to the employer, setting out the reasons for believing that additional costs should be recovered, the amount of the additional costs, together with the basis on which the additional amount has been calculated.

Aims and objectives

The purpose of the Strategy is to:

- Support the provision of a high-quality pension service to Fund members delivered through efficient working practices;
- Confirm the role of scheme employers and sets out their expected levels of performance;
- Confirm the role of the administering authority and sets out its expected levels of performance;
- Ensure that the Fund is operated in accordance with LGPS regulations, overriding legislation and any relevant Codes of Practice issued by The Pensions Regulator;
- Set out how the performance of the administering authority and scheme employers will be monitored and reported;
- Explain what actions might be taken by the administering authority in response to a scheme employers poor performance or non-compliance;
- Confirm how the administering authority will communicate with its employers
- Detail the resources and support that is available for scheme employers to access

This Strategy statement has been produced in consultation with all participating employers in the Fund and becomes effective from 1 April 2023. It will be reviewed at least annually and will be revised to reflect changes to:

- LGPS Regulations;
- Other overriding legislative requires and/or Pension Regulator code of practice;

- Policies determined by the administering authority; and
- Administrative practices required of the administering authority and scheme employers in fulfilling their respective functions.

Levels of performance and compliance achieved by both the administering authority and scheme employers will be reported;

- To the Fund's Pension Committee and Pension Board as part of regular administration performance reporting; and
- in the Fund's Annual Report and Accounts.

The statement will be published to all participating Fund employers via the Lambeth Fund website.

In no circumstances, however, does this Strategy override any provision or requirements of the LGPS Regulations or any overriding legislative requirements.

Roles and Responsibilities

General

The Fund is committed to providing a high-quality pension service to both members and employers, ensuring all members and dependants receive their correct pension benefit entitlement at the correct time. These aims are best achieved where the administering authority and scheme employers work in partnership and understand their respective roles and responsibilities.

As well as setting out the roles and responsibilities of both the administering authority and scheme employers this Strategy specifies the level of service each is expected to provide to each other, and the performance measures used to evaluate them.

The administering authority's roles and responsibilities

The high-level responsibilities for the administering authority are to:

- administer the LGPS in respect of all scheme members (active, deferred, pensioner and survivor members) in accordance with this Strategy
- maintain and review the Fund's statements, policies and reports and all other matters relating to the governance of the scheme
- communicate and engage with scheme employers on all LGPS and related matters
- provide support/training to employers
- maintain and develop an effective web presence for the benefit of scheme members and scheme employers

The scheme employer's roles and responsibilities

The high-level responsibilities for a scheme employer are to:

- communicate the benefits of the LGPS to eligible staff
- ensure the correct level of monthly pension contributions are collected and paid over to the Fund by no later than the 19th of the month following the month of deduction (or 22nd of the month if remitted electronically)
- report information and data to the administering authority as set out in this Strategy
- keep up-to-date with Fund related communications
- provide a prompt response to information requests from the administering authority

A detailed description of the key administering authority and scheme employer responsibilities relating to the Fund's administration are set out in Appendix 1

Primary employer contact

Each scheme employer must nominate a person who will act as the administering authority's primary employer contact. This person's contact details should be passed to the administering authority and kept up to date. There may be additional contacts for finance, payroll, etc, but the primary contact will be the first port of call where any issues or disputes arise.

See Appendix 2 for the primary employer contact form. This should be completed by the scheme employer and submitted to the administering authority immediately on first participating in the Fund and then immediately any change to the primary employer contact occurs.

It is the scheme employer's responsibility to ensure that the primary employer contact and all other key staff contact details held by the administering authority are correct, and to notify the administering authority of any changes immediately.

The scheme employer must ensure the nominated primary contact (and other key staff) is aware of the scheme employer duties and keep up to date with all guidance and instruction issued by the administering authority from time to time.

The scheme employer must ensure that they retain a good level of understanding of the LGPS and have a succession plan in place for their nominated contacts, including the primary employer contact.

The primary employer contact should ensure all information provided to the administering authority is correct by having an appropriate quality review process in place prior to information being submitted to the administering authority.

Performance Monitoring

General

The document provides the actions that may be taken where standards are not met by scheme employers and/or when persistent non-compliance occurs.

Due in large part to the annualised nature of the pension accrual for a Career Average Revalued Earnings (CARE) pension scheme, the importance of accurate and timely membership data returns to the administering authority has never been greater. The requirements and demands of running a CARE pension scheme, such as the LGPS, means that the administering authority must receive accurate and timely membership data from all scheme employers. This is in order that it can fulfil its statutory and organisational responsibilities, such as completion of member retirements, the production of annual benefit statements and compliance with the pension dashboards disclosure requirements.

The administering authority has, therefore, made the decision to mandate monthly data returns (via the administration platforms prescribed by Lambeth Pensions) for all scheme employers. All new joiner, opt-out, retirement notifications, etc. must be included on the monthly data submission for the month that the member joined, opted, out, retired, etc. or the month after if this is not possible.

If a scheme employer fails to provide the required data on a monthly basis and instead provides information at a later stage, the administering authority will charge an additional fee in order to process data using this legacy information. Details of the additional fee that will be charged can be seen in the table below.

Monitoring and engagement

Various means will be employed, as determined from time to time, to assist in monitoring compliance with this Strategy. More detailed methods may be included in a service level agreement (SLA) between an individual scheme employer and the administering authority.

Methods may include:

- Internal/external audit review of processes and internal controls;
- Performance monitoring against scheme employer tasks and functions noted in this Strategy;
- Performance monitoring the administering authority's own performance against internal key performance indicator as noted in this Strategy;
- Training sessions offered by the administering authority on the most pertinent issues affecting scheme members and scheme employers;
- Annual scheme employer pension forums;
- Member complaints;
- Internal Dispute Resolution Procedure (IDRP).

Using the above means the administering authority will monitor progress against this Strategy. This information will be reported to the Fund's Pension Committee and Pension Board alongside any remedial action taken where the expected standards are not being met. In addition, key performance indicators relating to the administering authority and scheme employers' performance will be reported in the Fund's Annual Report and Accounts.

Employer poor performance

Regulation 70 of the Regulations provides that an administering authority may recover from a scheme employer any additional costs associated with the administration of the scheme incurred because of a poor level of performance.

Circumstances where additional costs may be recovered

The circumstances where additional costs may be recovered from the scheme employer are:

- Persistent failure to provide relevant information to the administering authority, scheme member, or any other interested party in accordance with specified performance targets (either relating to the timeliness of delivery or the quality of information);
- Instances where performance by the scheme employer results in a loss to the Fund, e.g. any overpayment resulting from inaccurate information supplied by the scheme employer, costs associated with the assessment of benefits, interest on late payment of benefits, scheme tax charges, etc.;
- Failure to deduct and pay over correct employee and/or employer contributions within the standard timescales;
- Failure to pay any other amounts due to the Fund, e.g., actuarial strain payments;
- Instances where the performance of the scheme employer results in fines being levied against the administering authority by the courts, the Pensions Regulator, the Pensions Ombudsman or any other regulatory body.

Where an administering authority wishes to recover any such additional costs it must give written notice stating:-

- The reasons, in their opinion, that the scheme employer's poor performance contributed to the additional cost;
- The amount of the additional cost incurred;
- The basis on how the additional cost was calculated; and
- The provisions of this Strategy relevant to the decision to give notice.

The approach by the administering authority when dealing with poor scheme employer performance

When dealing with poor performance from a scheme employer the administering authority will follow the approach set out below.

- Write to the scheme employer noting the administering authority's areas of concern regarding the scheme employer's performance and offer training or a meeting to address the issue.
- If no improvement is made within one month of the above date (or within an agreed timescale following a meeting with or delivery of a training session to the scheme employer), or where the matter in question is not a regular event and no improvement is made at the next occasion that that same matter occurs, and the offer of training or a meeting has not been accepted, the administering authority will issue a formal written notice. The notice will set out the area(s) of concern that have been identified, the steps taken to resolve those area(s) and notice that the additional costs will now be reclaimed.
- An invoice and formal written notice will then be issued to the scheme employer which sets out calculations of any loss resulting to the Fund, or additional cost, taking account of time and resources in resolving the specific area(s) of unsatisfactory performance, in accordance with the fee scale set out in this Strategy.

Charges to be applied as a consequence of employer's poor performance

In instances where the performance of the scheme employer results in fines being levied against the administering authority by the Pension Regulator, Pensions Ombudsman or other regulatory body, these costs will be recoverable immediately.

Details of the additional fee charged are set out below.

Activity	Charge
Late payment of employer and/or employee contributions and any other payments due.	A fixed penalty of £150 per occurrence plus interest as defined in the LGPS Regulations.
Late provision of monthly or year-end contributions returns in prescribed format	A fixed penalty of £150 per occurrence plus £25 for each week plus part week of continued non-provision.
Failure to provide required member information monthly via iConnect (or other prescribed method)	Charge £150 per form and a further charge of £25 per month the form is outstanding
Failure to respond or provide any other required information within timeframes.	A fixed penalty £25 per case for each case chased after the original deadline has passed.
Charges for persistent incorrect and incomplete information provided by the scheme employer to the administering authority (where the case has to be returned for incorrect information on more than 2 occasions).	£50 per case
Fines levied against the administering authority from the Pensions Regulator that are directly attributable to the scheme employer's performance.	Amount requested by the Pensions Regulator.
Fines levied against the administering authority from the Pensions Ombudsman that are directly attributable to the scheme employer's performance.	Amount requested by the Pensions Ombudsman.
Delay causing payments from the Fund to be treated as unauthorised payments for HMRC purposes.	Cost of amount of the unauthorised payment.
Fines from any other statutory body incurred as a result of the scheme employer's actions.	As levied.

Communication

It is vital that good communication channels exist between the administering authority, scheme employers and scheme members. This helps ensure the good running of the Fund by reducing errors and improving efficiency and alerts scheme members to the value to them of the LGPS, which itself aids recruitment, retention and the motivation of the workforce and negates misleading media information.

In order to support scheme employers the administering authority will:

- Work closely with them to improve areas where issues have been identified as a result of performance monitoring;
- Keep under review all processes and procedures and implement improvements where required;
- Provide access to policy and strategy documents, including the administering authority's discretions policy, communications policy, communication and engagement strategy, data strategy and annual report;
- Provide guidance to scheme employers on a range of topics through procedural guides, newsletters, e-alerts, employer forum, etc.
- Provide training to scheme employers as and when required or on request from the scheme employer. All new employers in the Fund will also be provided with training. Employers will be expected to attend any such training, particularly where significant performance issues have been identified.

In addition to the above the administering authority will be happy to discuss availability to attend any employer specific events to assist employers understand their responsibilities in relation to their participation in the LGPS.

Scheme employers are expected to support the administering authority with any promotional activities that they are carrying out, including assisting with distributing e-communications and/or and promoting online access to the scheme.

The administering authority will also communicate with scheme members, using the following means to do so:

- Fund website - <https://www.lgpslambeth.org/> containing information about the Fund and the LGPS.
- Member Self Service - an on-line self-service facility giving scheme members access to their own pension records.
- Annual Benefit Statements – issued to all active and deferred scheme members.
- Newsletters – issued at least annually, bringing attention to important information, such as changes to scheme rules.
- One to One meetings – as required, to discuss personal details related to a scheme member's participation in the Fund.
- Presentations – available to scheme members on specific pension related matters, such as HMRC pension tax rules or pre-retirement sessions.

Breaches of the Law

Where an employer does not actively engage with the Fund to resolve issues and/or consistently fails to meet its responsibilities under the LGPS Regulations, the administering authority (or stakeholders such as the Pension Board) has a statutory duty to report any breach to The Pensions Regulator. Similarly, stakeholders (such as the Pension Board) may report the Fund to The Pensions Regulator if it is believed that a breach has occurred in respect of its duty as scheme administrator.

If deemed to be materially significant, the Pensions Regulator has the authority to take prompt and effective action to investigate and correct the breach and its causes, and, where appropriate, to notify any members whose benefits have been affected.

The Pensions Regulator may impose a penalty under section 10 of the Pensions Act 1995. At the time of creating the Strategy, the maximum amount of a penalty in relation to a breach is £5,000 in the case of an individual and up to £50,000 in any other case.

Penalties may be imposed on any party who has legal requirements or responsibilities relating to the management or administration of the scheme, and anyone else who could be subject to any of the Pensions' Regulator's statutory powers of investigation and enforcement, such as employers and professional advisers.

Other charges

In line with its Funding Strategy Statement the administrative costs of running the Fund are predominantly charged to scheme employers through their contribution rates. However, it should be noted that, in addition to additional costs already set out in this Strategy other costs may be passed on to a scheme employer, including:

- Work commissioned specifically on behalf of a scheme employer will be charged to them for that work. This includes IAS19/FRS17 valuations, actuarial modelling, assessments or advice, and/or legal advice and technical advice.
- Where, because of the employer's failure to notify the administering authority of the final retirement details in a timely manner, payment of the retirement lump sum is not made within 30 days from the day the member's retirement, the administering authority may issue an employer with a written notice of unsatisfactory performance and may charge the employer for the interest payment made.

Performance Standards

Administering Authority

In addition to the legislative and regulatory requirements set out previously, the administering authority and scheme employers will ensure that all functions and tasks are carried out to agreed quality standards. This section outlines the key responsibilities of the administering authority, and the performance standards scheme employers and scheme members should expect. It is focused on the key activities which involve interaction with scheme employers and/or scheme members and should not be viewed as an exhaustive list.

Appendices

1. Roles and Responsibilities

Administering authority

The key responsibilities of the administering authority are summarised below:

- To appoint an actuary for the purposes of the triennial valuation of the Fund and to provide periodical actuarial advice when required.
- To appoint an Additional Voluntary Contributions provider.
- Ensure that, where required, employer admission agreements with the administering authority are in place.
- To comply with any orders or instructions issued by The Pensions Regulator or the Pensions Ombudsman. Where the order or instruction requires financial compensation or a fine to be paid from the Fund, or by any officer responsible for it, and it is due to the default, omission or otherwise negligent act of the employer, the sum concerned shall be recharged to the employer.
- To issue forms, newsletters, booklets and such other materials as are necessary in the administration of the scheme, for scheme members and for use by scheme employers.
- To provide accurate, timely data to the Fund actuary for the purposes of the triennial actuarial valuation of the Fund and for scheme employer accounting reports requested (e.g. IAS19/FRS102 reports).
- To provide assistance to scheme employers in regard to the pension implications of outsourcing services and to deal with any related bulk transfers of pension rights.
- To comply with HMRC reporting requirements regarding pension benefits.
- To ensure that sufficient information is issued in the form of newsletters, booklets and other materials to satisfy the requirements of the Occupational Pension Schemes (Disclosure of Information) Regulations 1996.
- To ensure that steps are taken at all times to pay benefits to appropriate beneficiaries only and to reduce the possibility of fraud.
- To ensure compliance with the (UK/EU) General Data Protection Regulation legislation including use of appropriate secure data transfer methods.

Scheme employer

The key responsibilities of a scheme employer are summarised below:

- To maintain employment records for each scheme member for the purposes of determining membership and entitlement to pension benefits.
- To determine a scheme member's pay (or fees) for the purpose of pension contributions and to determine final pay (if required both final salary and CARE regulation definitions) for the purposes of calculating benefits due from the scheme.
- To determine annually a scheme member's contribution rate on the basis of the scheme member's rate of pensionable pay having regard to guidance issued.

- To collect, make payment and account for the deduction of the correct rate of monthly pension contributions payable by both the scheme members and the employer.
- To appoint a person designated to receive appeals from employees on 'first instance decisions' under the LGPS Regulations.
- To notify, in writing, every person whose rights or liabilities are affected by a 'first instance decision' made by the employer under the Regulations.
- To ensure all information is provided as required regarding a scheme members' employment, using electronic transfer of data where at all possible (especially for bulk exercises) and agreed with the administering authority. Data provided should comply with the General Data Protection Regulations and secure transfer methods used.
- To use an independent Medical Officer qualified in Occupational Health Medicine, (who has been approved by the administering authority), in determining ill-health retirement and provide the administering authority with a relevant certificate where appropriate.
- To provide additional information as required for actuarial valuation, monthly data transfer, data matching or communication purposes. The specification for such exercises will be provided by the administering authority and may, after consultation, be modified from time to time.
- To provide prospective scheme members with basic information about the scheme using, where appropriate, material provided by the administering authority.
- To ensure those not joining the scheme are fully aware of the benefits given up and that equalities principles are met.
- To pay the administering authority, by lump sum and within prescribed time limits, any amounts arising as a result of the scheme employer's decision to increase annual pension under the Regulations.
- To pay the administering authority, by lump sum payment and within prescribed time limits, any strain cost arising from a decision made by the scheme employer to award early payment of benefits.
